ALAUDA WINS FOR WILSON.

TAKES THE UNION STAKES WITH THE FAVORITE, WAVE CREST, THIRD.

Gus Straus Falls and Jim McGill Is First in the Steeplechase—Grapple Defeats Cressina in a Close Finish.

New York, April 17.—It was almost wintry weather at Aqueduct today, but a good crowd was there and bet close around the winners in every race, although only two actual choices, Madrileno and Besom, won. Grapple was not fancied for the handicap, Cressina having the call on fast trials and her good form of last season. But at the last moment Farrell sent in a commission on Grapple, and while the horses were at the post his price was cut. It was smartly done and the stable got a remarkably good price. The Metropolitan Handicap winner of 1906 is very fit and caught Cressina tiring under her weight in the stretch, winning in a going-away drive.

Alauda had no trouble in winning the Union Stakes, which scratching reduced to an affair of but three starters. Wave Crest was a heavily backed favorite at odds-on, but Alauda went right out in front and practically won all the way. Directly after entering the stretch the Nashville-owned colt, Cymbal, made a dash and got his head in front but it was on sufferance. As soon as Dugan relaxed his hold on Alauda he drew away from Cymbal and gave R. T. Wilson, Jr., his first stake race of the year. Wave Crest cut a sorry figure and after running second for half the journey fell back to a badly beaten third.

The tabulated history of the Union Stakes is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val.	Time.
1907	Berkeley	103	R. Lowe	$1,210	1:27
1908	Alauda	101	E. Dugan	1,080	1:29⅘

Madrileno won a good race. Guy Fisher, which ran second, may prove more than useful when the distances are longer. Sight is a good looker and sure to do better. Desolate, the tip, was messed about by Burns and should not be given up.

In the steeplechase Gus Straus took his fences badly, finally coming to grief. The winner, Jim McGill, is an improving young horse that may do better still.

Tim O'Toole spoiled all the good things in the fifth race, winning by a nose at 10 to 1. Frank Lord might have won if running straight, but swerved badly when it meant defeat, and is a bad horse at best. Poquessing belongs at Pimlico, except on a muddy track.

The last race was a canter for Besom, and now that he has graduated from the maiden class he may do some of the good things expected from him last year.

KENTUCKY RACING COMMISSION TO MEET.

Lexington, Ky., April 17.—A meeting of the State Racing Commission will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock for the purpose of issuing licenses to trainers and jockeys. Secretary A. B. Rouse arrived here from Washington tonight and found on his desk over 100 applications. Colonel E. F. Clay, it is understood, will not be present at the meeting tomorrow. He is confined to his room at Runnymede Farm in Bourbon county.

Messrs. Andrew Miller, Franklin C. Bishop and Ogden Bishop, owners of the Millstream Stud, home of Adam, arrived tonight from New York to spend four or five days at the farm.

At Highland Farm this afternoon Frederica, dam of Colonel Ruppert, foaled a chestnut colt by Adam. The mare and foal are owned by Henry M. Ziegler. This makes the fourth foal for Mr. Ziegler, all colts.

Mose Goldblatt arrived tonight from Cincinnati. The three horses he will race here, Keep Moving, Alsatian and Mortiboy, will arrive tomorrow. Tod Cella came in tonight from New Orleans. He will remain until the close of the meeting. The track was very heavy today and there was practically no work.

Secretary Letcher had the teams on it all day and it is being harrowed through the night.

ENGLISH TURF GOSSIP AND COMMENT.

It is the irony of fate that some of our finest riders to hounds have met their end over two-foot fences or crossing an open drain; but, when all is said, let a horseman take what chances he may, he is infinitely more likely to die in his bed than in his boots, and the risks of the saddle, in toil or sport, are little greater than those met with in the average occupations of the world.—The Badminton Magazine.

There is a story current of a city man backing a certain horse, which we will call Eclipse, for a race the other day s. p. The animal won all right, but when the backer called at the office to collect his money he found a piece of paper pinned on the door with: "Eclipse won; also ran, me and my blooming clerk."—Horse and Hound.

Sure enough, M. de Szemere, the Hungarian racing man, is to try Japanese jockeys. Six boys are to join his stable at Tata the end of this month and be well tried out.

MARWOOD BRINGS DISASTER TO BOOKMAKERS

Favorites Take the First Five Races and the Heavily Backed Outsider Heaps Their Woe.

Oakland, Cal., April 17.—Ring doings during the running of today's card at Oakland were sensational in character from first to last. Heavily backed favorites scored all down the line, five victories in succession, until the last, when a "killing" went through on Marwood, an extreme outsider, backed down from 40 to 1 to 20 to 1. The thirty-five layers were unable to get out on the defeated odds-on and outstanding favorite, Luretta, in the last race, because of lack of support from the public, which had been burnt so often that it invariably fights shy of short-priced starters from the Bedwell establishment. Therefore, the ring was forced against its will to virtually hold Luretta at 3 to 5 in the betting, and was again mulcted for a large sum of money. The Marwood coup almost caused a financial panic at the close. Some idea of the extent of the disaster to the bookies may be gained when George Rose was unable to pay off Marwood tickets. His losses had averaged $2,000 to a race up to the last. That Bedwell's jockey put up a bad-looking ride on Luretta was the general verdict after the race. He seemingly did not make any effort until it was too late.

Every winner during the afternoon enjoyed the best of racing luck, which materially helped them to victory. A majority of the immense crowd present profited handsomely and this will act as a stimulus to the game.

J. Dinkelspiel claimed Booger Red for $1,200.

The starter suspended Fred White, the jockey on Metlakatla for incompetency. White incurred his ire by getting away last with Durker's mare, which is notorious as the slowest beginner in local training.

"Midget" Walsh fell with Woolen while at he post in the third race, and the horse rolled partially over the prostrate lad. Applegate's crack lightweight gamely remounted and finished second and the grandstand spectators applauded him wildly when he returned to the scales. It was a wonderful exhibition of nerve and gameness.

Smiley Corbett, W. Cahill's speedy three-year-old, which has been sick for several weeks, is recovering.

J. M. Stokes has arrived at Oakland with several good horses, among them Bonnie Prince Charlie, Creston and Succeed.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK FOR MONTREAL MEETING.

Montreal, Que., April 17.—The Blue Bonnets track is drying out very fast and will be ready for trainers at least two weeks earlier than last year. There is very little frost in the ground and the snow has all disappeared. The drains have worked perfectly and the course has not suffered any injury by a winter which will be remembered for its severity.

Many entries are being received for the stakes which close on April 30, and many new names are on the list of owners applying for stalls. It seems as though the fame of the track had gone abroad, for all those who were here last year are coming again, and bringing others with them. Among the newcomers will be John E. Madden, A. H. Zimmer, William Garth, Harry Rites, Paul J. Rainey, J. H. McCormick,, T. F. Coles, Amos Turney, W. H. Fizer and A. F. Dayton. Applications have already been received for over two hundred stalls.

The Grand Trunk Railway has completed, at a cost of $50,000, a palatial horse express train. Each car is fitted with high speed air brakes, passenger trucks, steam heat and illuminating gas. This train, which consists of ten cars, will make its first run from Toronto to Montreal on June 4. It will run in two sections, and an effort will be made to beat the running time of the International Limited, which is the fastest train in Canada. The Canadian Pacific Railway will also have a train for the use of the Montreal Club, with cars fitted up with berths for the men accompanying the horses.

The book of the meeting will be out shortly after the stakes close. There will be plenty of races for two-year-olds, and a steeplechase every day.

Winner—Ch. g, by Ethelbert—Old Madrid (trained by P. T. Chinn).

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Madrileno outbroke his opponents and set the pace all the way, winning with speed to spare. Guy Fisher ran a good race and finished resolutely, but swerved badly in the final drive and narrowly missed fouling Sight. The latter was speedy, but was next to the rail throughout and was pocketed to the last furlong, though he finished well when an opening came. Chipmunk closed a big gap, but was tiring at the finish. Desolate, off none too well, showed some speed, but was in close quarters and was pinched off at the end. Primrose League raced green. Reprisal was almost left. The winner was entered for $900; no bid.

Scratched—74278 Ramble, 98; Fair Lassie, 98.

Overweights—Madrileno, 1 pound; Sight, 1; Primrose League, 1.

74301 SECOND RACE—About 2 Miles. Steeplechase. (65376—4:20⅘—5—154.) $700 added. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $590.

Winner—B. c, by Handsome—Mariamne (trained by S. Veitch).

Went to post at 2:54. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering. It was a two-horse race until three jumps from the finish, where Gus Straus fell and Jim McGill had no further contention. Jim McGill showed a good turn of speed and, going to the front early, made all the running. Dr. Hellsworth showed scant speed and was jumping high all the way. Gus Straus was always in close attendance and was going easily when he fell, though he was taking the fences in slovenly fashion throughout. After the fall he was remounted and finished third. Esquire, after falling at the sixth jump, was remounted and finished. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Winner—B. g, by Woolsthorpe—Embrace (trained by F. D. Weir).

Went to post at 3:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Grapple was skillfully saved to the stretch and, catching Cressina tiring in the last sixteenth, was drawing out at the finish. Cressina outbroke her opponents and, racing Big Chief into subjection, appeared the winner when a furlong from home, but tired in the final drive. Big Chief showed an excellent turn of early speed, but swerved badly in the final drive and was very tired at the finish. Grace Cameron was greatly outclassed.

Scratched—74281 James B. Brady, 110; 74268² Poquessing, 113; 71844 Sungleam, 100; 71813 Sparker, 98.

Winner—B. c, by Ornament—L'Alouette (trained by T. J. Healey).

Went to post at 3:53. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Alauda took the lead at once and showed the way to the home turn, where he was momentarily headed by Cymbal, but passed the latter when called on and won easing up. Cymbal ran an impressive race, was always in forward contention and finished gamely. Wave Crest had no mishaps, was badly outrun in the early stages and failed utterly in the stretch drive. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—72032² Sanguine, 101; 74302³ Big Chief, 106; 70724 Long Ball, 100.

Winner—Ch. c, by Ben Strome—Henrietta (trained by F. D. Weir).

Went to post at 4:18. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Tim O'Toole forced the early pace and, taking the lead on the far turn, kept it, but finished tiring and barely lasted long enough. Troublemaker ran a good race, came a trifle wide at the head of the stretch, but finished very resolutely and almost got up. Frank Lord was best and would have won had Flynn been able to keep him straight, was closing up with a rush on the outside when he swerved in behind Tim O'Toole and Troublemaker. Teacress showed early speed, but quit in the stretch. Poquessing and Chalfonte got away badly and showed scant speed. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Winner—Br. c, by Ben Brush—Noonday (trained by J. Rowe).

Went to post at 4:50. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won galloping; second and third easily. Besom is very fast, rushed to the front in the first furlong and, although rated in front all the way, drew far away and won in a canter. Miss Popular made up ground steadily, caught Question Mark tiring in the last twenty yards and was a fast going second. Question Mark was much used in racing with Besom and was tiring badly at the finish. Hartford Boy ran surprisingly well. Raquel was in close quarters throughout and unable to improve her position. Robert Cooper showed speed, but was tiring at the end. G. Ferraro bolted.

Scratched—71794 Bolando, 108; 71861 Red Bonnet, 103; 71861 Almandine, 105; 71776 Gold Franc, 105; 71997 Tenakoe, 105; 71617 Bandbox, 105.

EPSOM DERBY AND AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

Writing of D. Maher and his riding of Spearmint in the Derby, the Sportsman says: "Truly that American jockey boasts an exceptionally fortunate career since he left the land of stars and stripes, for, during the few years he has ridden in England he has won nearly all of our most important races, and has had the handling of three Derby winners, the other two having been Rock Sand for the late Sir James Miller and Cicero for Lord Rosebery. Reference to his several successes recalls to mind that the American jockeys have been remarkably conspicuous of late years as far as our principal race is concerned, Lester Reiff having won on Volodyovski, J. H. Martin on Ard Patrick and John Reiff on Orby; indeed, the only break in the sequence of the past seven years was when Kempton Cannon and St. Amant fought their way through the terrific storm which raged the while the race was being run four years ago."

Time, 25⅗, 50⅗, 1:17, 1:43⅕.

Winner—Ch. c, by Isidor—Rockwater (trained by G. Miller).

Went to post at 1:42. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Onatassa drew out quickly, set the pace throughout and won with something to spare. Humero had no mishaps, was luckily and forwardly placed all the way and a fast going second. Cayenne Cora was always within striking distance of the leaders and finished well. Aromatize, after prominent contention to the final strides, tired. Athgold loomed up menacingly on the last turn, but tired. San Olmo, nearly left, closed a big gap. Supine, repeatedly shuffled back, finished with a belated rush. Frank Skinner showed early speed, but failed to stay and was shut off.

Winner—Br. f, by Sain—Grand Shot (trained by W. Walker).

Went to post at 2:09. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Centre Shot ran within striking distance for the first half, then wore the leader down in a long stretch drive and was best. Booger Red was reserved in close pursuit of Wahoo in the early running and drew out on the last turn, was seemingly an easy winner midway of the stretch, but succumbed in the last stride. Adena, away badly, closed an immense gap and was a fast going third. Wap, from a poor start, closed up rapidly in the middle running, but went wide on the last turn and tired finally. Wahoo outbroke the others and set a stiff pace, but failed to stay. Cuernavaca showed speed. Lackfoot was short. The winner was entered for $2,000; no bid.

Scratched—74170 Turnaway, 95; 74229 Royal Queen, 91; 74156 Il Tremor, 98.

Overweights—Wahoo, 2 pounds; Cuernavaca, 3.

Winner—Br. h, by Oakwood—Freyja (trained by F. Holman).

Went to post at 2:33. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Ralph Young, forwardly placed from the start, drew out and held sway through the last half, but probably was lucky. Woolen, the early pacemaker, was crowded back in the third quarter, but came with a rush at the end and finished wearing the leader down. Mandarin, suddenly improved, from a lucky start established a good lead in the middle running, but went wide on the turn and tired finally. Vinton, away badly, closed an immense gap and is very inconsistent. Mary B. Clark, crowded to the rear on the first turn, ran a bad race and has had too much long distance racing recently. Elota improved her position. Andrew Mack ran poorly. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—74131 Ed Sheridan, 110.

Overweights—Vinton, 2 pounds.

Winner—Ch. g, by St. Carlo—Lovelight (trained by C. Mulholland).

Went to post at 2:59. At post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. L. C. Ackerley, luckily and skillfully reserved in the early running, leisurely moved up at the half and made good decisively at the end. Boloman, from a striding start, made the running for seven furlongs before he succumbed and then outstayed Bardonia. The latter ran in nearest and persistent pursuit of Boloman throughout and was a fast going third. Markie Mayer, away poorly and messed about, closed a big gap. Dally, away badly in an extreme outside position, closed a big early gap and loomed up in the stretch, but tired finally. Nabonassar, shuffled to the rear on the first turn and outrun in the middle quarter, finished well. Joe Coyne, nearly left, closed an immense gap. Ten Oaks and Wuerzburger failed to stay. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Overweights—Bardonia, 3 pounds; Wuerzburger, 2.

Winner—B. g, by St. Andrew—Angelique (trained by J. H. Brannon).

Went to post at 3:25. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Stilicho, luckily and forwardly placed throughout, outstayed Palemon on his own courage, despite a weak and inadequate ride at the finish. Palemon, away slowly, soon established himself in forward contention and, drawing out in the last half, held sway to almost the last stride. Patriotic ran in prominent contention all the way and made an unexpectedly game and persistent finish. Etapa, from a bad outside start, closed a big gap into an easy fourth. Chancellor Walworth ran forwardly for six furlongs. Cheripe finished well. Metlakatla, a slow beginner and nearly left, closed an immense gap. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—B. h, by Rey del Sierras—Louise M. (trained by W. Fisher).

Went to post at 3:54. At post 6 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Marwood, after running in forward attendance on the pacemakers from the start, finished fast and got up in the last two strides. Kenilworth followed the flying pacemaker closely to the stretch and drew out like the winner, but succumbed finally. Luretta held forth leisurely in a rear position until too late and came with a belated rush, running two feet to the leaders' one. Sid Silver, from a flying start, took a big early lead, but quit badly in the last quarter. Salvadale made up much ground in the last half. Military Man was short and will do to watch. Milpitas was as good as left.

Overweights—Fiesser, 1 pound.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Owens rode Jimmy Lane at Aqueduct Wednesday with a sheet of boiler iron wrapped around his shoulder to protect that portion of his body in case of a fall.

A picture of Pink Star, winner of last year's Kentucky Derby, adorns the cover of the Louisville program book. The design is printed in pink and black, the colors of Hal Woodford, who owned the colt.

Jockey W. Ott has been engaged to ride for the Corrigan stable at Churchill Downs. C. Koerner will also wear the Corrigan colors, and Heider will ride the jumpers raced by the establishment during the meeting.

A compromise is looked for in the fight against racing in New Orleans, and according to what seems good authority the legislature will pass a bill creating a racing commission and limiting the amount of racing.

Fifty trainers and jockeys have applied for licenses before the Kentucky Racing Commission and paid their fees for the current year. Trainers are required to pay $10 and jockeys $5, and have until tomorrow to apply.

Thomas McCreery, the young trainer who was accidentally shot by Congressman Heflin three weeks ago and who was reported very low this week, is improving steadily. The physicians at George Washington Hospital say that he has a good chance for recovery.

"Boots" Durnell, who was ruled off the turf by the Jockey Club last fall, and who was similarly dealt with by the Pacific Jockey Club, has left the California tracks and is among the spectators at Aqueduct. Jockey Englander, also under the ban, is seen in the crowds.

Another attempt to abolish the Latonia race track is being made by a Mr. Kruse, member of the Latonia council, who has offered a resolution demanding that streets be opened through the course. Attorney Harvey Myers, representing the track owners, is opposing the move.

The Lucha, of Havana, says: "There is another disadvantage in holding race meetings in Havana. The transportation lines have no trucks, freight cars, or cross ties for the accommodation of those who failed to make their pile and who wish to get back to their former stamping grounds."

Barney Schreiber will, with the close of the Emeryville meeting, devote his energy to the sale of 150 thoroughbreds, which he has decided to offer at private sale. With this end in view he will put in the summer visiting the principal racing centers, where he will maintain stables. He believes this a better plan than to hold a public sale.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

H. E., Chicago. Prices were correct as published.

Capt., Chicago. Have no record of any owner or trainer of that name at Pimlico or elsewhere.

A. T. and P. F. C., Toronto, Ont. The amount due A at the conclusion of all the races wagered on was $4.70.

A. H. M., Chicago. It means the positions assigned the horses as drawn by lot or other means, and generally corresponding with program numbers.

J. W. K., St. Louis, Mo. The bet was a draw. The bet was equal—that is, each man wagered that he would beat the other, and the tie made it a draw.

J. M. H., Cincinnati, O. The stipulation "both to go" meant that both Chapultepec and Angelus should start as the B. & O. entry, and governs the bet, which was a draw.
